ING announces change in Supervisory Board

ING announced today that Godfried van der Lugt has resigned from the Supervisory Board of ING Group for personal reasons. Mr. Van der Lugt (70) was scheduled to step down from the Supervisory Board after the 2011 Annual General Meeting in May, having agreed in 2010 to stay on for one more year at the request of the company.

Mr. Van der Lugt's resignation is connected to a personal issue with the Dutch tax authorities, which has been resolved entirely. Subsequently, De Nederlandsche Bank received information from the tax authorities. Recently De Nederlandsche Bank notified Mr. Van der Lugt that it would initiate a renewed assessment of him. This has led to Godfried van der Lugt's decision to step down from the Supervisory Board as of today.

Godfried van der Lugt was appointed to the Supervisory Board in 2001, having been a member of the Executive Board since the formation of ING Group in 1991. In 1992 he became vice-Chairman of the Executive Board. From 1998 until 2000 he served as Chairman of the Executive Board of ING Group.

"Godfried van der Lugt has distinguished himself in the Supervisory Board through his extensive knowledge of the banking sector and ING in particular. We thank him for his many years of excellent supervision and advice," said Peter Elverding, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of ING Group.
